EAA's February speaker will be artist: Jude Tolar

Jude Tolar is a pastel artist who set aside drawings and doodling for a psychology degree from OSU. Art followed her, though, and led her to a long career in graphic design/illustration in OKC and Stillwater. Her first art job was as the Staff artist for the Metropolitan Library system in OKC.

Along the way she studied fine arts at OU, and wrote and illustrated children's books. In her mid-50s, Jude turned to pastel painting, mainly from life and often in plein air. She seeks to paint the beauty and joy she sees in the world. She's become known for her trees and florals outdoors and glass subjects indoors.

Please welcome Jude Tolar on Monday/2-24th as she gives a demo on pastel painting at the monthly meeting. For more information on Jude - visit: www.judetolar.com.

There are many reasons to love being a Member of the Edmond Arts Association:

1. Informative and educational art demonstrations every month.
2. Interactions with a community of artist in the Edmond area.
3. Ability to promote your art activity in the community via Facebook and Monthly EAA newsletter.
4. Publication opportunities of being the EAA 'Featured Artist of the Month'.
5. Display opportunity at the Edmond Public Library for a month out of the year.
6. Art Show opportunities such as the Member's art shows in the Fall and Spring time of each year.

See EAA membership form for more information.
