* * * EAA MEETING NOTICE * * *

 The Monday/MAY 18th EAA meeting with Marie Kash Weltzheimer has been cancelled, due to concerns about Covid-19 & group events at the Edmond Fine Arts Institute. **

Future EAA meetings/demos have been cancelled as of this time. This is subject to change depending on the opening of the Edmond Fine Arts Institute. Stay posted to this newsletter and to the EAA facebook page for the latest information.

The EAA Facebook page can be found at:

<https://www.facebook.com/EdmondArtAssociation/> and the EAA website is www.edmondart.org. Check these sites for the most current up to date information.

The EAA spring show may still happen this summer, depending on the Spring Creek Shopping center and other factors. Watch for email concerning this show.

Virus to know: Stay safe and healthy by keeping your immune system healthy, wearing masks and knowing that the virus spreads through respiratory droplets produced when an infected person coughs or sneezes. source: www.coronavirus.health.ok.gov.

There are many reasons to love being a Member of the Edmond Arts Association:

1. Informative and educational art demonstrations every month.
2. Interactions with a community of artist in the Edmond area.
3. Ability to promote your art activity in the community via Facebook and Monthly EAA newsletter.
4. Publication opportunities of being the EAA 'Featured Artist of the Month'.
5. Display opportunity at the Edmond Public Library for a month out of the year.
6. Art Show opportunities such as the Member's art shows in the Fall and Spring time of each year.

See EAA membership form for more information.
