

MARCH 2019

MARCH ARTIST FOR DEMO

Kenny McKenna's subjects are widely diverse, with an emphasis on landscapes. Painting exclusively in oils, he uses an impressionistic style that elicits warmth and calmness, an open invitation to explore and an inherent infusion of sunlight. To visit relatives residing on both the West and East coasts, McKenna's family took to the road. The desert landscapes, canyons and colors of the Southwest were especially appealing to him on travels to California. He continued to crisscross the United States as an accomplished musician. His contribution to music has been recognized by his induction into both the Kansas Music Hall of Fame and the South Dakota Rock & Roll Music Hall of Fame. In 2017, McKenna was commissioned by the Oklahoma State Capitol Centennial Committee managed by the Oklahoma Arts Council to create an art installation honoring the centennial of the Oklahoma State Capitol building.

chris CARGILL

FEBRUARY ARTIST FOR DEMO

Thank You to our own EAA member Chris Cargill for a great job at our last EAA members meeting. By consensus, he will definitely be back to teach us more!

More about Chris –

Having lived in Oklahoma for most of my life, I have been inspired by the history, landscapes and urban design of the 46th state. From the stories of the Native Americans to the "newspaper of the street," my art is born to continue their dialogue.

My wife and I love to travel and one of our favorite destinations is Santa Fe, New Mexico. It was after a visit there in the Fall of 2011 that I was inspired to start painting professionally. I thank each of those who give words of encouragement along my journey; and a special thanks to those who have chosen to display my art in their private collections. Please explore more about Chris and his artwork on his professional art website at chriscargill.com.

There are many reasons to love being a Member of the Edmond Arts Association:

1. Informative and educational art demonstrations every month.
2. Interactions with a community of artist in the Edmond area.
3. Ability to promote your art activity in the community via Facebook and Monthly EAA newsletter.
4. Publication opportunities of being the EAA 'Featured Artist of the Month'.
5. Display opportunity at the Edmond Public Library for a month out of the year.
6. Art Show opportunities such as the Member's art shows in the Fall and Spring time of each year.

Take a look at the attached EAA membership form for more information.

If you are out and about head over to the PASEO ART DISTRICT and support local art. Many EAA members are showing.
