EAA's November speaker will be: Jim Pourtorkan.

Mr. Pourtorkan is a self taught watercolor artist. He has been professionally painting since the early 90's.

Recognition for his work has been received through numerous juried art competitions and shows including the National Watercolor Oklahoma Exhibition.

Jim's love for this medium has been strongly influenced by the behavior of the watercolor pigment, the accidental nature of watercolor and the unknown outcome.

His ability shines as he demonstrates original techniques he has perfected through the years. Spontaneous serendipity lends his work with a fanciful flare that surprises the viewer.

He teaches both private and group watercolor classes and travels throughout the state doing demonstrations and holding workshops.

NEWS:

Many Thanks to Judy Breymeyer for organizing the Edmond Library show !!

A Note from Judy:

The art is up! Great art and great help!

Thank you Tyler Mitchell, Professional Art Hanger for volunteering to help hang our show.

There were 20 pieces entered for the show. Thank you Artists for entering. I encourage our EAA members to come look at the show.

The art will hang for the month of November.

Pick up date for the art is Saturday, November 30, 2019 10:00-10:45.

THANKS to Wes Newton:

We would like to thank our last month's speaker - Wes Newton for creating Autumn Decor at the October meeting!

There are many reasons to love being a Member of the Edmond Arts Association:

1. Informative and educational art demonstrations every month.
2. Interactions with a community of artist in the Edmond area.
3. Ability to promote your art activity in the community via Facebook and Monthly EAA newsletter.
4. Publication opportunities of being the EAA 'Featured Artist of the Month'.
5. Display opportunity at the Edmond Public Library for a month out of the year.
6. Art Show opportunities such as the Member's art shows in the Fall and Springtime of each year.

See EAA Membership form for more information.
