 The February 22nd, 2021 EAA meeting has been cancelled due to Weather concerns **

The EAA board has decided to cancel the February 22nd, EAA meeting. We plan on meeting next month on Monday/March 22nd. Future EAA meetings will tentatively be scheduled from April through June.

A reminder that all members will be given credit for 2020 dues which will be applied to 2021 dues. So members will owe $5.00 for 2021. New people joining will owe $35.00 for individual membership. Dues can be mailed to EAA's P.O. Box. See address at left or pay at the next meeting.

The EAA Facebook page can be found at: <https://www.facebook.com/EdmondArtAssociation/> and the EAA website is www.edmondart.org. Check these sites for the most current up to date information.

The March 22nd demo will be done by Chris Cargill. Check Chris's artwork out at: <https://www.chriscargill.com>.

Having lived in Oklahoma most of his life, Chris has been inspired by the history, landscapes and urban design of our 46th state. Please join us on 3-22nd to see Chris's demo !

There are many reasons to love being a Member of the Edmond Arts Association:

1. Informative and educational art demonstrations every month.
2. Interactions with a community of artist in the Edmond area.
3. Ability to promote your art activity in the community via Facebook and Monthly EAA newsletter.
4. Publication opportunities of being the EAA 'Featured Artist of the Month'.
5. Display opportunity at the Edmond Public Library for a month out of the year.
6. Art Show opportunities such as the Member's art shows in the Fall and Spring time of each year.

See EAA membership form for more information.
